

July Council Highlights

UCSJ's Council met on June 23 and July 12.

- Although our contributions were less than our projected budget, expenses were much lower than anticipated. Council voted to place all surplus funds from the 2020-2021 budget into general reserves.
- Pastor Charlie Packard reported on his Coffee with the Pastor conversations. Over 40 have been scheduled through the summer.
- Pam Larson shared the recommendation from the Worship & Music Committee to replace the piano in the sanctuary. Final selection will be made within the next few weeks. Watch for our fundraising campaign to begin in August.
- Dave Young shared that a local family is interested in moving the trailer to their land west of Ridgway.
- Carolyn Snowbarger announced the results of the annual congregational meeting (see page 3).
- Pam Larson, chair of the nominating committee, shared the recommendations for the new church council. Ballots have been distributed by email and/or US mail and are due by Sunday, August 1.
- The next council meeting will be Monday, August 9 at 9 AM in the sanctuary.
