A Lenten Mindset: From Ashes to Light

I have been pondering the bizarre, random things that happen in our lives and in our world. As we go about day-to-day, we walk with an idea of how the world is and how our lives will go. Then something tears into that vision: an unexpected health diagnosis, the end of a job we thought was secure, a sudden death of a family member or friend, a world event that shatters norms. Or maybe a hoped-for outcome has not materialized and the life we envisioned is as far away for us as it has always been.

These are not experiences any of us wants. Yet, in each one can be a gift that gives us a clearer view of the best in ourselves and in others. We recognize in a new way what really matters. Old resentments and dissatisfactions dissolve, and our compassion grows for ourselves and for the suffering and loss of others in the world around us. Connecting to and walking with each other becomes a top priority. We develop a different perspective, and we focus on what life is about with clearer eyes.

Developing that different perspective is what Lent is all about, and that is how we will be focusing as we walk through the season when it begins on February 18th with Ash Wednesday. We will observe the day with a simple worship service at 4:30 PM that will include the imposition of ashes.

Then each Wednesday from February 25th until March 25th we will gather from 4 to 5:30 PM (see page 5 for more details) at UCSJ to explore those places and times when our lives get ashy and dry, and how we can journey into light. Each week we will have time to reflect on our own lives through the lens of moving from those ashy places to renewal, clarity, and joy. We'll look at where in our lives things may have become stale, where we need room to take a breath, rest, renew, and restore a connection with the One who gives us life.

Our gatherings will begin with appetizers and a time for catch-up and conversation. We'll then move to a time of focused spiritual practice and reflection, with opportunities for silence, creative expression, and communal prayer. I invite you to take time and share the journey as we walk through this Lenten season together.

Blessings, Melinda

Council Highlights!

Your full Council met in January and along with regular business we approved upgrading the video camera, hiring sidewalk snow plowing, and getting gravel for the handicapped parking area.

Other discussions included setting the Annual Meeting for June 14 after which we will have a Ministry Celebration (good food!). Other meetings will include budgeting sessions May 13th and 20th. As required by the by-laws the membership records will be reviewed this spring and the Nominating Committee will begin their work (be prayerfully open to considering any requests).

Note that due to security issues the UCSJ Directory will no longer be sent out digitally. If you would like an updated copy, please request one from the Administrative Assistant Shirley.

The next meeting will be for the Administrative Committee, on February 11, at 2 PM at the church.

Pam Larson, Council Chair

It Takes a Village

If you have received a greeting for your birthday or another commemorative occasion, you can thank one of the four people (Sue Conrad, Kristi Henson, Marsha McCall, and Alicia Sheppard) who have each agreed to take three months of the year to help you celebrate by sending either an ecard or card by mail. If the church office has your birthdate and/or anniversary you can look forward to being recognized in this way.

There are many people who are part of our church family performing a variety of acts of service. Each one is a thread in the weave of the fabric known as UCSJ. You know who you are, and we thank you.

An “Epiphanous” Congregational Conversation

After church on Sunday, January 4th, thirty-five folks enjoyed a delicious potluck brunch coordinated by the Congregational Life team. We have great cooks at UCSJ, and the dishes, as always, were exceptional. Thanks to Carolyn Snowbarger and all those who made sure there was plenty of great food.

Along with the food, those at each of the five tables discussed four questions related to our Long-Range Visioning process. Those questions with their combined responses of the groups are below:

- 1) What drew you to this church when you first visited? What has kept you here?
  - We were looking for a more inclusive church, and we found it with the church’s ecumenical approach: all welcome
  - The pastor(s) and congregation were and continue to be very welcoming
  - We felt and still feel a lot of warmth, caring, and community from the congregation
  - We felt drawn to the worship service, music, and message—and we continue to be
  - We are grateful for the great music program and choir. Wanted to sing and we can!
  - There were people here who love the outdoors—and the spirit of the outdoors that is here
- 2) What kind of light do you think this church brings to the community? Where do you think its light needs to burn more brightly?
  - Light: children’s camp and choir programs; events open to the community like Wednesday book studies, Breakfast Forum, music programs, growing connection with support to area teachers, students, and schools, summer trips
  - Burn more brightly: more involvement with the Food Bank, poor, homeless; how we open up to the community; grow intergenerational involvement and outreach to younger people; also, how we connect with more mature folks; keep up more actively with visitors
- 3) We all want to leave a legacy of some kind. What about this church, would you like to see live on after you are gone?
  - Our openness to and acceptance of others; our welcome to all; our respect for differences; our ability to be a community resource; continue our vibrant care ministry; continue our beautiful music
- 4) Think of this church in 10 years. Who do you see here? Who is not here? What are we doing as a church? What will we need to be doing differently?
  - Younger people and a more intergenerational congregation
  - A strong focus on programs that address both spiritual and physical needs—in and beyond
  - Short mid-week service that draws people beyond Sunday morning
  - Addition to building that creates more space for congregational and community gatherings and creates a clearer entrance
  - An even more vibrant care ministry, along with a strong prayer ministry
  - A more intensive connection to and involvement in the larger community
  - A columbarium

These are the highlights of each table’s discussion, but there was more specific conversation within each group. If you would like more information, please contact Pastor Melinda. We will continue these discussions. Hope you will be part of them!

Education

The series, The Chosen, continues to be shown on Thursdays through February 19, at 10 AM. New ideas are being cultivated and old ideas about faith and focus are part of the discussion afterwards surrounding this show. Pastries and coffee will be available.

The Chosen

The Education Committee invites you to watch season one of The Chosen. This series aims to challenge old ideas about faith and focus on making new connections.

On the Same Page Book Review

Carolyn Snowbarger will be facilitating Theo of Golden by Allen Levi for the On the Same Page book review to be held on Monday, March 2, at 10 AM. This is a great opportunity to hear about this originally self-published book that has brought so much joy and light. Books ($15) will be available in the narthex.

Community Book Study and Soup Supper

A Spring 2026 Wednesday Community Book Study and Soup Supper—a vegetarian and meat choice of soup signup will be offered by one of our church founders and leaders Mick Graff. He has graciously, once again, agreed to take book selections starting now. The study will start mid-April and continue through May. A request for book ideas and their authors is appreciated—Please email or text your book/author suggestions to eliseshirey@gmail.com or (830) 953-0208. We'll want the book choices voted on, selected and made available a month before the first day of class in April so you can decide, review, read, and look over which book is a good match for your 5-6 weeks of study.

The UCSJ Book Swap

Thank you for the fresh supply of books being donated regularly. You can find the books on the inside shelf in the library—please look for the sign located by the west door. Please leave the books you want to swap and find one that speaks to you.

Community, Caffeine, and Celebration: February at UCSJ

The short days of winter are the perfect time to gather, and your Congregational Life Ministry Team has a busy February planned to keep us warm and connected. From selecting our new signature coffee to celebrating our February birthdays, there is something for everyone to look forward to!

Help Us Pick Our Official UCSJ Coffee!

Fellowship time is an important part of our Sunday mornings together, and we believe the coffee in your mug should be as warm and inviting as the conversation. We are looking for a new “house blend,” and we need your taste buds to help us decide!

Join us on Sunday, February 1, immediately following the service for a Coffee Tasting & Voting Event in the gathering area.

How It Will Work:

- Sample: We'll have three different “roasts” prepared, ranging from light and bright to dark and bold.
- Sip: Take your time to enjoy the different flavors. Don't worry, there will be plenty of cream and sugar on hand if that's how you like it!
- Vote: Cast your ballot for your favorite bean.

The winning roast will become UCSJ's official coffee served during fellowship time. Whether you're a coffee connoisseur or just enjoy a hot mug while you chat with friends, your opinion matters. Let's find a blend that makes everyone feel right at home—because life is too short for mediocre coffee!

February Birthday Celebration

Sunday, February 22 — Following Worship

It's time to party! Following our worship service, we will gather to celebrate all those in our church family born in the month of February. And of course, no celebration is complete without chocolate cake. Come for the fellowship, stay for the dessert!

Gals' Lunch: A “Revealing” Gathering

Wednesday, February 25, at 12 PM, at Shelter Distilling

Ladies, please join us for a special lunch at Shelter Distilling (947 Mayfly Drive, Montrose). This month features a fun twist: we are asking everyone to share a story about their “first love” with the group. It's sure to be a wonderful time of storytelling and sisterhood.

A Heartfelt Thank You

Our fellowship time wouldn't be possible without the generosity of our volunteers. We want to extend a huge “Thank You” to Clayton and Jere Beaudry, Alice Goertz, Donna Whiskman, and David Stytz for providing the coffee and delicious treats this past month. Your service sweetens our Sundays!

Blessings from Your Congregational Life Ministry Team:

Jenny Cheek, Sue Conrad, Charlotte Duckett, Junella Hildreth, Marge Quist, Lish Sheppard, Elise Shirey, Carolyn Snowbarger (chair), Gen Spangler, and Angela Todd

A REMINDER: Scams Abound!

If you receive a text or email from anyone on our staff or Council, asking you to purchase gift cards, Bitcoin or any other form of currency, do not respond and report it to either Pastor Melinda or our Council chair, Pam Larson.

It's easy to be fooled! But we can be smart and stay safe from scammers.

Remember don't respond but do report.

Mission & Outreach

The UCSJ Mission & Outreach (M&O) Committee wants to thank everyone that has been participating in the M&O projects over the last several months. Our desire is for it to be an encouragement and blessing as you give of your time, energy, and financial support to others.

We are continuing with the theme of “Impacting Local Needs” in the next several months. If you picked up a HopeWest Veterans Starry Blanket, please remember to return it to the church so it can be given back to HopeWest for distribution to a veteran in hospice care. We hope you were able to hear Caroline, one of the founders of Shepherd’s Hand and Terri, Board Member, tell us about the services they offer and their programs to help the homeless and those in economic hardship. If you are interested in volunteering or donating, go to their website.

In February, we will be asking you to help with a Valentine’s Day Teacher Appreciation activity. On February 1st and 8th, we will be giving out Valentine cards for you to write a note to a teacher. These will be put in the teacher and staff boxes at the Ouray and Ridgway schools. A sweet way to show our appreciation to our county educators!

During March, be prepared to bring in shelf-stable food items for the Ouray Food Pantry. Cindi Myers will give us ideas of what they need once the dates are closer.

If you are interested in the work that the M&O Committee is doing, please talk to one of the members about joining our group. The current M&O Committee members are Lisa Young (chair), Charlotte Duckett, Claudia Wolff, Kate Kellogg, Donna Whiskeman, Cindi Myers, Lucy Scholpp, Betsy Lattanner, Gini Barker, and Bruce Shirey.

Breakfast Forum — Saturday, February 21, at 8:30 AM

We are fortunate to have as our speaker, author Kathryn Wilder who will give a presentation on her new book The Last Cows. This is the story of a woman, mother, environmentalist, cowboy, and rancher of 19,000 acres of combined public and private land in Disappointment Valley in Southwestern Colorado. Her literary nonfiction conveys the joys, challenges, heartbreaks, and qualms of contemporary ranching. She and her son Ken, run the ranch raising Criollo cattle that are uniquely adapted to the desert.

Kathryn is the winner of the 2025 Western Heritage Award and the author of Desert Chrome: Water, a Woman, and Wild Horses in West.
